

Dear Parents / Carers,

On Monday, the children met their new class teachers and classmates, for the first transition day. We also welcomed our new reception children and parents.

Next year the classes have an underwater theme, which was suggested by the School Council. All the children were given the opportunity to write down ideas for the class names and the teachers picked from those.

The classes for next year are: Nursery and Reception – Crab Class with Miss Young; Years 1 & 2 – Sea Turtle Class with Miss Thomas; Years 3 & 4 – Octopus Class with Miss Tunley, and Years 5 & 6 – Nautilus Class with Mrs Henderson. The children all had a fun time in their new classes and will join together for the next three Monday afternoons.

We hope to see you all at the Sports Day on Thursday.

Have a good weekend.

A message from Mrs. James.

As of next week, I'll be coming back to school for the majority of the week. With the Summer Fair, Sports Day, the Year 6 production, the Reception graduation and all of the end of year celebrations, this time of year is always a hipe of activity in schools that I wouldn't want to miss. Working in a small school is rewarding in many ways but staff members always have to take on more responsibility and roles than those working in a 'normal' sized school and I am so grateful to all of the staff for taking on even more during my leave. Their support and dedication of all the staff, has been incredible. I look forward to seeing all the pupils and parents next week and I'll bring Jules to the Summer Fair so you can say hello.
